

The Personal License allows you, the Downloader, a non-exclusive, non-transferrable limited right to only use the works that you acquire (Work) .

In particular you must not:

1. Directly or indirectly license, sub-license, sell or resell or provide for free the Work or offer to do any of these things (all of which are referred to as Resale)
2. Reproduce the Work as your own.
3. Make the Work available on a website without Author Permission.
4. Use the Work in another work which you are creating or incorporate the Work in another work which is created for Sale/Resale.

These restrictions apply to you whether the Work is being used in the creation of a work for yourself or for someone else and where the Work is being used in the creation of a work by someone else on your behalf.

If you still have any question, feel free to contact Author/UI Junction Team.
